

Heritage Farms Christmas Tree Farm

A Beautiful & Historic Wedding Venue

Conveniently Located in Northeast Ohio

With a perfect balance of elegance and rustic charm, Heritage Farms will provide an unforgettable romantic setting for your wedding and reception. Heritage Farms' 25 acre Christmas tree farm provides a simple, laid-back wedding venue where you have the freedom to create your own unique wedding celebration.

Nestled in the the heart of the Cuyahoga Valley in a beautiful historic farm setting, Heritage Farms is family owned and located in Peninsula Village, Ohio. This countryside location will give you the perfect backdrop for your Wedding.

Heritage Farms is the perfect place for your most important wedding events. We can accommodate small or large groups and offer an elegant and rustic setting surrounded by nature and a national park. We have wedding celebrations on our gazebo bridge, out in our tree field or in our barn. Our setting allows for a casual, yet upscale event.

Heritage Farms can arrange catering for your convenience. Our caterers take pride in serving the quality foods you expect, whether for your rehearsal dinner, reception or both. We also offer the option to have full bar service for both your rehearsal and reception dinners. Full bar service with bar tender may include your own selection of non-alcoholic beverages, wines, mixed drinks and beer if you desire.

The Christmas Tree Barn looking north

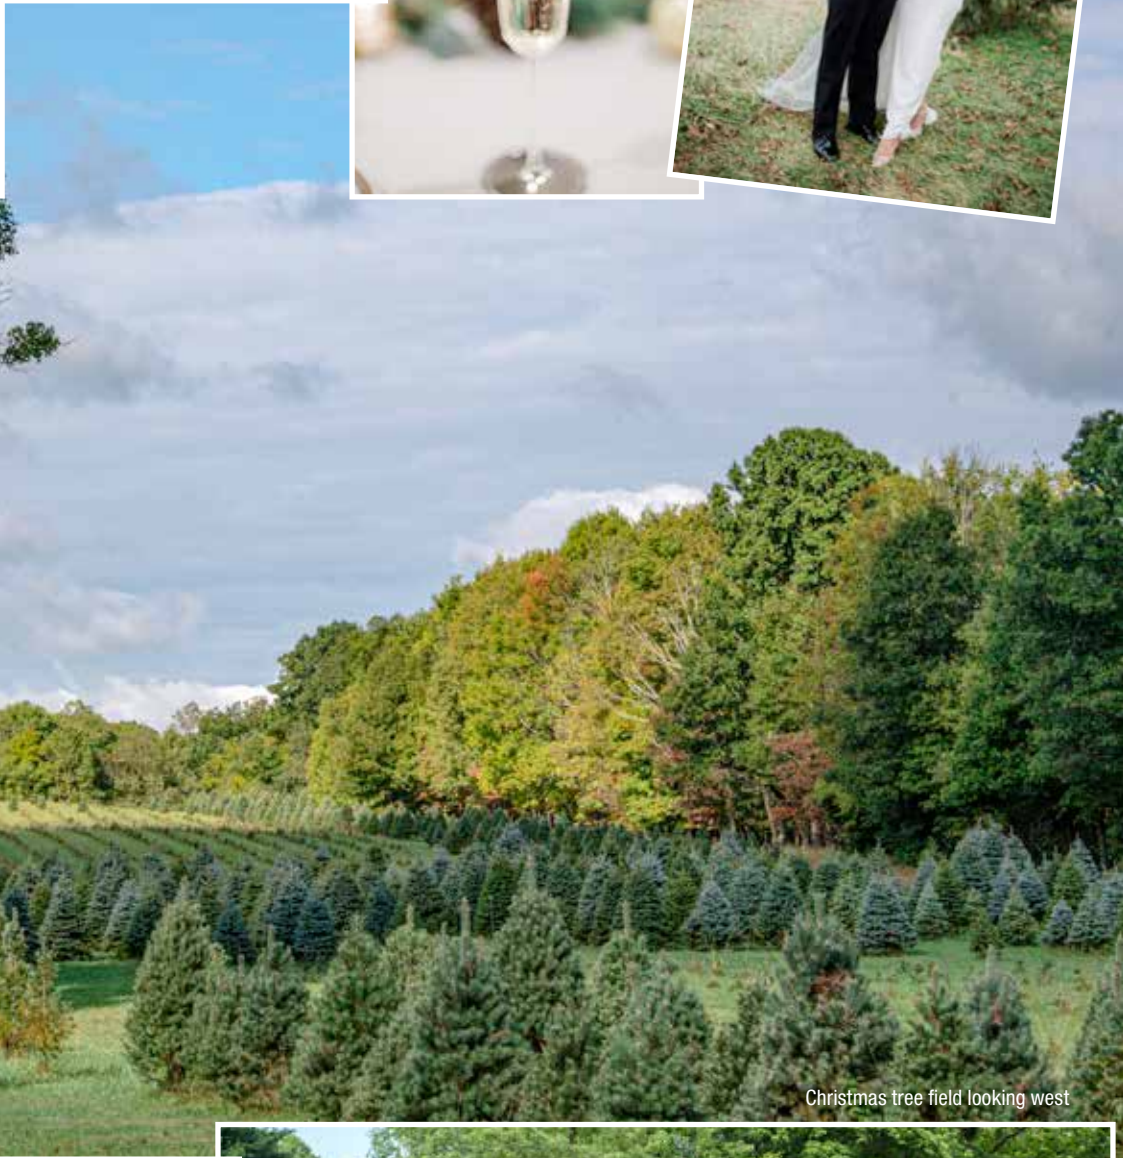

Your event can also include bridal party and grooms party accommodations. We provide a large party tent for wedding parties over 75 and have ample parking. We also offer primitive on-site camping in our tree fields for the truly adventurous spirits.

Our wedding venue is in the Historic Village of Peninsula, the Heart of the Cuyahoga Valley. The picturesque setting that Heritage Farms provides will bring your imagination to life to transform your wedding event into a magical and truly unforgettable celebration. Our location also provides an ideal natural setting as a distinctive photographic backdrop for capturing your wedding.

The historic farm is located just 30 minutes north of Akron and 30 minutes south of Cleveland. Access to the farm by major interstates freeways and the Ohio turnpike is within a few miles. This wonderful country location will give you the perfect setting surrounded by nature's splendor for your wedding, as well as rehearsal dinner and reception party.

Christmas tree field looking west

The Gazibo Bridge looking south

The Heritage Farms Tradition

We appreciate your interest in Heritage Farms, a family owned farm nestled in the beautiful Cuyahoga River Valley in the historic Peninsula Village.

Peninsula, settled in 1818, is well known for its rich history and beautiful scenery. Driven by a pioneering spirit, the village and Cuyahoga Valley has its rich agricultural history. Today it is home to numerous small businesses with numerous artists and craftspersons, a tradition of farming, business and arts spans more than 200 years in our community. Founded in 1848, Heritage Farms, has been a part of this vibrant history for more than 170 years!

We believe our farm's rich family heritage provides a perfect place for you and your family to create your own special memories. If you are looking for the perfect place to get married and rustic romance fills your wedding dreams, then come tour Heritage Farms. We are happy to have you schedule a visit to see our wedding event venue here in Historic Peninsula surrounded by the Cuyahoga Valley National Park.

The fifth generation family farm is owned and operated by Carol and George Haramis. Give us a call.

Heritage Farms

Heritage Farms • 6050 Riverview Road • Peninsula, Ohio 44264 • 330-657-2330
HeritageFarms.com